

Introduction – Nancy Reece

Long before she was an acclaimed professional speaker, Nancy Reece was a little girl growing up on a farm in Indiana. Her life journey took her to the inner city of Chicago to serve in one of the worst housing projects in the US. It was there that Nancy learned key lessons about integrity, power and hard call courage that she has applied during her career.

With over 25 plus years of real world leadership knowledge, Nancy brings uniquely creative insights to the table around integrity, power, intelligence and courage. Nancy was the first woman elected National Board Chair of the Association of YMCA Professionals in its 130-year history. Her career includes service as Senior Vice President for the YMCA of Middle Tennessee and National Field Consultant for YMCA of the USA. She has served as adjunct faculty at Lipscomb University's Graduate School of Business and at Belmont University. The author of The Dichotomy of Power® - Using Power with Intelligence and Integrity, she also writes the Integrity First columnist for the Nashville Business Journal.
